A simulated crisis at Bay Area Laundry evicts me fro access to the public facility

I, my identity and rights to rent, lease, be employed, get to trial, use public places, have been subject to at least 60 of these ambushes where a Crisis Team creates a crisis often occurring with property stolen from me and because of that crisis acts taken against me, the harassment system is under Color of Law sham investigate and sham prosecute me and my trust fund and my contracts in place to break them.

Intonations are made towards me I am a pedophile, FBI is on the scene, and during that a female seeming a sex workers begins talking about Negros and where the keys will be left as she is to meet someone. A black male speaks being my neighbor, I have no black neighbors. The Crisis Actos speak of seeing my motorcycle (stolen recently) and a woman rigging on back of it.

I report all of the to the police and offer the police the recordings of the events. I am evicted and banned by the police, for having been a ruckus. Corpus Christi PD move my laundry to a long con set and the black neighbor of THAT location likely catches pedophile Crisis Actor who says he is Edward Donegan, and that Crisis Actor confession is used against me and my trust fund as pretext for actions against me including lawsuits and evictions.

Crisis actor From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Disaster training simulations

Actors take on the role of mock victims and simulate specific injuries from a disaster to add life-like realism to an emergency exercise. Theatrical makeup and cosmetics, plus rubber and latex appliances, are often used to simulate a variety of wounds or medical conditions that realistically portray victim's injuries, a practice known as medical moulage.[7][8][9]

Actors who portray news reporters, relatives of victims, and concerned citizens are also used during drills to train emergency operations center personnel to cope with a variety of emotionally-charged demands and requests.

Emergency medical technicians from the 96th Medical Group move a "wounded" Airman toward safety during an active shooter exercise at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida in 2014.

Disaster training simulations

Actors take on the role of mock victims and simulate specific injuries from a disaster to add life-like realism to an emergency exercise. Theatrical makeup and cosmetics, plus rubber and latex appliances, are often used to simulate a variety of wounds or medical conditions that realistically portray victim's injuries, a practice known as medical moulage.[7][8][9]

Actors who portray news reporters, relatives of victims, and concerned citizens are also used during drills to train emergency operations center personnel to cope with a variety of emotionally-charged demands and requests.

In practice scenarios these Crisis Actors are practice for emergencies. In Intel operations they can frame people by creating "narratives" of people and events they surround,, like a hooker, a crisis actor, in public saying (to a victim of stalking) "thank you for paying me that money" I hope you liked your blowjob from and underage girl"

In Free Masonary this is called Rough Music and defames accusers of Masonry by impeaching critics of Masonry

And a Crisis Resolution that a trust fund representing the cause of the Crisis, Edward Paul Donegan, will be billed for the crisis and supply genome rights or other property via the communities Right to Sue the trust fund of Edward Paul Donegan.

This is the PsyOps mission underway called Jade Helm 15 or Extortion 17.